“Unlisted PA Merchant Tokens (part 18)” by Larry Dziubek

(Starting with Volume 23-Issue 1, an attempt is being made by PATCO members to build a list of tokens not known when the PA tome was published. We try to follow the example of Dr. Aqua, but stray from the strict standards. There are some storecards included that are not issued by pure merchants. Food Stamp tokens are not included, but we are compiling a separate list of them and need your help. Some, but not all plastic tokens, are included herein. New Independent Brewing Co. varieties are not entered into this list, but are maintained in our database. Some entries are incomplete, because only partial data was provided in eBay sales or retail listings. You are invited to add or correct any of this information if you have seen the actual token. Write to Larry Dziubek.)

TRANSPORTATION TOKEN NEWS: PATCO vice president Dick Gaetano discovered a new 25-cent denomination variety of the West Elizabeth Bridge Co. tokens. The above scalloped aluminum transportation token will be listed under the existing Atwood-Coffee catalog PA965 varieties, which already include 12, 15, & 35-cent denominations.

Unlisted Celluloid Button Encased Cent of Pittsburgh Barber Supplier Ross W. Black

By Rich Bottles Jr.

In 2007 I took on the task of listing all known celluloid button encased cents, manufactured by the Baltimore Badge & Novelty Co. I was able to account for 22 distinct varieties of these small 23mm button-sized celluloid encased coins, containing Indian Head Cents dated between 1902-1907.

In addition to a shield design containing the merchant's name, these encased cents also feature tiny images of the following good luck charms, from left to right above the shield: wishbone, horseshoe, rabbit's foot and four-leaf clover.

Fifteen of the 22 varieties I identified in 2007 were Pennsylvania merchants, including nine from Allegheny County. Of course, I continued tirelessly searching for new varieties of these tokens after the publication of my cataloging effort in the PATCO Journal and the ANA's Numismatist; but nothing new showed up after nine years of searching.

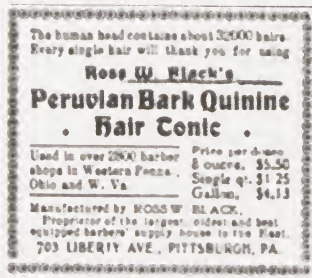

But that all changed in September when HCC Rare Coins of Maumee, Ohio, offered an unlisted Pittsburgh encased button from barber supplier Ross W. Black. The new celluloid button encased cent, which includes a 1902 Indian Head, has a gold-colored shield with the inscription:

GOOD LUCK / ROSS W. BLACK, / SHAVERS' MATERIALS, / 703 LIBERTY AVE., / PITTSBURG.

A third-generation Pittsburgher, Ross W. Black opened his own barber supply business in 1886, after having worked for ten years with a similar barber supplier named Sebastian Delp.

In addition to the regular tools of the trade, Black's business also offered barber chairs, washstands, mirrors and other barber-related furniture. He also sold and created, along with obtaining patents, many perfumes, cosmetics and hair tonics.

His store on Liberty Avenue soon became known as one of the largest barber supply businesses in the country. Black died in his early 50's of spinal meningitis around 1913, but his wife Emma Hoffman Black continued on with the business. A Subway sandwich shop now resides at 703 Liberty Avenue.
